

Civil War Era--

Michigan Military Academy Walk &

Reflections
ON THE LEGACY OF

Joseph Tarr

Copeland

SATURDAY, OCT. 22, 2011, 10 A.M.
ST. MARY'S BANQUET CENTER
3535 INDIAN TRAIL, ORCHARD LAKE

Civil War era history will be highlighted with a guided stroll around the former 1878-1908 Michigan Military Academy (MMA) on the grounds of the Orchard Lake St. Mary's campus. During the brief 30-year life of the school it was deemed the "West Point of the West."

Dave Finney, nationally recognized Civil War authority, will give a presentation on Union General Copeland whose home, known as "the castle", later was part of the MMA.

Brunch included

$15, $10 to GWBHS members

Reservations by Oct. 19 to Carole, 313.929.3543

Greater West Bloomfield Historical Society
gwbhs.com Twitter @gwbhs 248.757.2451

