'Our School History' Grant Received

City Of Orchard Lake Village Clerk Rhonda McClellan, GWBHS Grant Writer Christian Sonnevile, GWBHS President Gina Gregory, Director of City Services Gerald McCullen receive the grant check

Greater West Bloomfield Historical Society (GWBHS) received a $9,100 grant from the Community Foundation of Southeast Michigan, made possible with a GWBHS financial endorsement by the City of Orchard Lake Village, and support letters from greater West Bloomfield community partners. GWBHS will further fulfill its Mission: enriching our communities by collecting, preserving, and sharing history with this project - the third phase of Our School History, an ongoing GWBHS project to document the history of area schools.

In the first project phase, GWBHS volunteer researchers gathered information from the West Bloomfield School District and archives at Orchard Lake Museum. Ten reports chronicle early school history and are available, free, at <https://www.gwbhs.org/our-school-history/>.

Volunteers implemented a community outreach campaign to seek additional information from members of the community. In 2016, this resulted in informational panels being installed at each of the school buildings, detailing the individual histories of that school. Now with this 2022 grant, GWBHS will digitally catalog these 1,000 documents and photographs into the GWBHS archive collections database, implementing professional standards. Museum Professional Shelby Nelsen will provide project administration, digitizing techniques, and volunteer training.

View the GWBHS archive digital database, with a wide variety of topics and thousands of items, at <https://gwbhs.pastperfectonline.com/>. There are many more GWBHS collections to add to the archive database.

If you are interested in supporting the preservation and/or sharing the history of Keego Harbor, Orchard Lake, Sylvan Lake, and West Bloomfield, we are looking for your support of other archive database projects. Consider making a financial contribution and include "archive database project" to direct your donation. Donations may be made by cash, check, credit, or Paypal at gwbhs.org/support/donate/.

Building Changes at Orchard Lake Schools

The campus on the east shore of Orchard Lake has recently seen many changes. Paul Mellerowicz

The Michigan Military Academy Barracks, built circa 1889, had dorm rooms along the lakeside. Orchard Lake St. Mary's (OLSM) purchased the entire property, and added rooms on the campus side in the early 1920s. Later it was used as the college dormitory, and a class building with first-floor faculty offices, archives, and storage. It was demolished in 2015.

The Victorian staff house was built circa 1889 and used as Michigan Military Academy senior staff housing until 1907. This home never had a kitchen, since they ate in the dining halls. Left unheated, it was torn down August 24, 2022.

The Orchard Lake St. Mary's Preparatory High School opened Joseph Burkacki Academic Center with 20 classrooms and numerous collaboration spaces in October 2022. While Joe Burkacki was not an alumnus, he donated $5 million to this educational institution upon his death. The quad was recently updated and renamed the Richard & Mary Trzcinski Quad.

David Ward: 1865 Environmental Visionary

There is probably no single individual who has been responsible for maintaining the essence of Orchard Lake and our area lakes than David Ward. Born 200 years ago Ward received a medical degree from the University of Michigan, created a fortune as a lumber baron in the densely forested middle of the state during a time of a rapidly expanding country, and finally settled with his family on Dow Ridge, off Commerce Road just west of Orchard Lake Road. Situated between Cass and Orchard Lakes he built a modest summer home for his family of eight. Eventually his family convinced him to build a 40-room summer retreat on the 200-acre site.

In 1863 a group of business men devised a plan to increase their property by drastically draining Cass Lake. There are two versions of their motivation. One was they wanted to increase pasture land for their sheep. The other was to increase land to sell for a profit. In either case Ward immediately saw that lowering Cass Lake's level would also impact the water level of Orchard Lake (and other surrounding lakes), destroying his property on both sides of Dow Ridge. With his experience in land acquisition, he moved to block the plan. Not only did he succeed in protecting his land, he also insisted that the law be maintained into perpetuity, thus establishing the first wetland regulation in West Bloomfield Township.

Ward continued to buy acreage with the intent to preserve the natural beauty of the area. Here wealthy men from the city could hold sailing regattas, fish, shoot the abundant game and hike in the summers, and curl, skate and ice fish on the frozen lakes of winter. In preserving the area, he was preserving a way of life that benefits us even today.

Ten years later the St. Clair and Chicago Air Line RR planned to run their rail lines through Dow Ridge, the center of his property. He persuaded them to use the strip of land between Orchard and Pine Lakes, all around Orchard Lake.

Glasser and Helen Janen Peters with Whitfield school bench Nov. 2022

Daniel Whitfield School was razed in 2003. This year the School cornerstone was made into a bench at Memorial Park, using bricks from the school. Copies of the original documents from the cornerstone dating back to 1851 will be placed in a copper box, inside the cornerstone. The original documents are safely stored at City Hall. Mike Glasser designed and constructed the bench with a Closing Ceremony held November 3, 2020, view at https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nUY_h-cpAAU.
