

GWBHS Volunteer Opportunities 2024

Greater West Bloomfield Historical Society needs volunteers at every level of involvement. Consider volunteering!
Become a member and submit an online application at gwbhs.org/support/volunteer, or reach out to ANNA@gwbhs.org or phone 248-757-2451 to learn more.

- Collections

- Archive database computer work: add archive database information to spreadsheets, and other tasks
- Digitize: Audio cassette tapes, slides, VHS tapes at Green School Media Center
- Research librarian: retrieve and return items
- Transcribe video interviews

- Education

- Give a presentation to a community senior group
- Tour docent for group Museum visits
- Video interview a community member with provided questions

- Other

- Crafts: make birchbark tokens with wood burning tool as take away item
- Light cleaning: Museum monthly, remove dust from outside exhibits
- Write: articles, publicity information

- Volunteer

- At Apple Island Tours, June 8 & 9, 2024. Many positions: museum, grounds, docks, and island
- At the Memorial Day parade, GWBHS entry: ride a bike, pull our carriage (perhaps with your golf cart), wear a costume
- Host a Museum Open House
- Host a GWBHS table at a community event or GWBHS Library presentation.
- Share GWBHS newsletters at civic meetings

- Serve on a Committee

- Development & Fundraising
- Membership
- Newsletter
- Programs

Orchard Lake Museum, 3951 Orchard Lake Road, Orchard Lake, MI 48323 | WWW.GWBHS.ORG | CONTACT@GWBHS.ORG | 248.757.2451

Greater West Bloomfield Historical Society is a 501(c)3 organization open to all.
Open: 1st/2nd/4th/5th Sundays & 3rd Fridays 1:00-4:00 PM
Closed: Holiday Weekends & When a GWBHS Program is Elsewhere
Research Opportunities by Appointment

